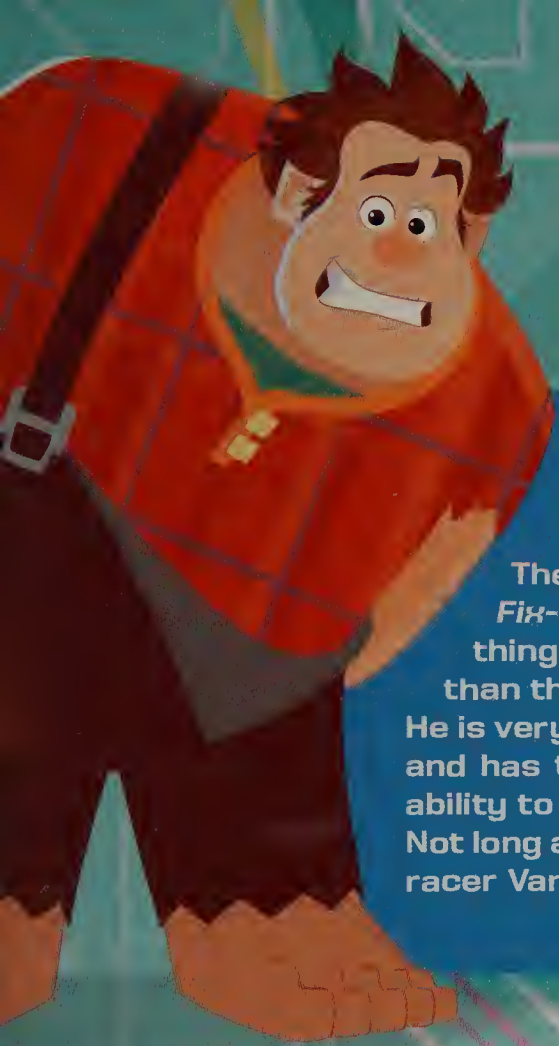
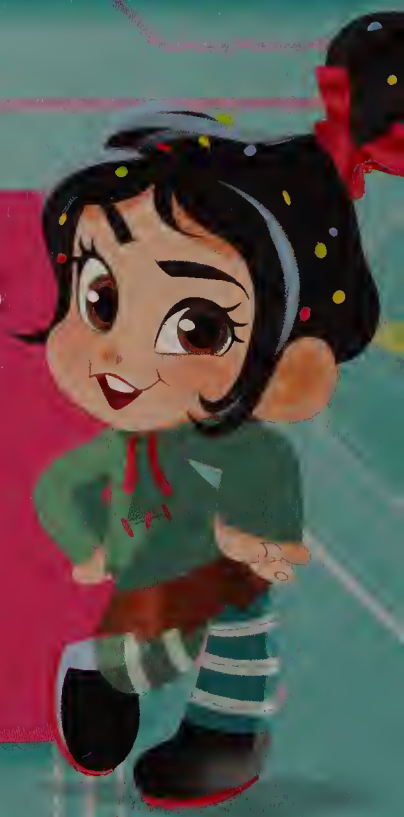
Meet the Players!



Wreck-It Ralph

The Bad Guy from the 8-bit video game, Fix-It Felix, Jr. Ralph's job is to wreck all things in Niceland. But Ralph is much more than the role he plays, and he's not a bad guy. He is very talented at wrecking things, however, and has to be careful to make sure to use his ability to his advantage—and to everyone else's. Not long ago, Ralph found his best friend forever, racer Vanellope von Schweetz.



Vanellope von Schweetz

The best racer in the candy kart racing game, Sugar Rush. Vanellope is sharp-witted, spunky, and fun-loving, and she shows no pretension when it comes to being a princess. Vanellope has been setting the track on fire ever since Wreck-It Ralph visited her game and helped her to regain her rightful place as ruler of Sugar Rush. And while she loves her race, she longs for something different . . .

Now, let's go to the internet!

Welcome to the internet, friendo!

You're about to enter a fun-filled adventure where you choose a path for your favorite video game heroes, Ralph and Vanellope.

To select your own story, all you have to do is follow the instruction icons at the bottom of each page and make your choice!

Sugar Rush is in danger! Ralph went into Vanellope's game to make the course more challenging for her, but his additions caused a real-world user to yank the steering wheel too far to one side and break it off. Now Ralph and Vanellope must travel to the Internet to find a replacement...before it's too late!
